

COMMUNICATIONS IN THE PARISH OF NORTH WEALD

In response to a recent enquiry from a Resident who wanted to know where the Noticeboards were within the Parish, and how the Parish Council Clerk, to write a short article explaining the concerned that a Resident who had lived in not aware of the location of the TWELVE Parish Council uses them for.

communicated to Residents. I decided as locations of the Noticeboards. I was the Parish for in excess of thirty years was Parish Council Noticeboards and what the

Therefore, the locations of the

Noticeboards are as follows:

North Weald Village (6 Boards):

On the Front Glass Wall of the Parish Council Office Inside the Library,

High Road - Outside the Post Office/News Shop,

High Road In the Bus Stop by the Talbot Roundabout Near the Industrial Estate

High Road In the Bus Stop Opposite Pike Way By The Post Box

Epping Road in the Lay By at the Junction with Woodside

In the Car Park at the Front of the Queens Hall Community Centre

Thornwood Common (3 Boards)

The Parish Hall at Thornwood Common – On the Front Wall

High Road Thornwood Common Opposite Woodfield Terrace

Upland Road By the Post Box

Hastingwood (3 Boards)

London Road at the Junction of Park Avenue

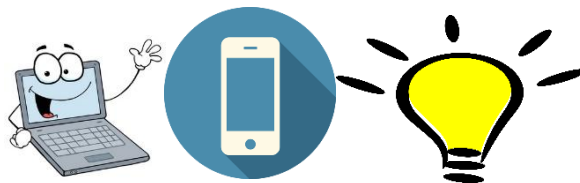

Foster Street adjacent to the layby just before the turning to Green Lanes

Hastingwood Road, Just past the Junction with Mill Street Opposite the Cottages near the GP Box

Allotment Notice Boards

As well as these twelve Main Boards there are Boards outside each of the Parish Council Allotments for Allotment Tenants Notifications – Wheelers Farm Gardens, Queens Road, Hastingwood and Thornwood Common.

Parish Council Website www.northweald-pc.gov.uk

The Parish Council Website has a wealth of information on it, including Latest News, Details of Councillors, Agendas, Minutes, Parish Hall Hiring, Neighbourhood Plan, Cemetery Details, so it is well worth a visit.

All Boards are used to communicate important information to local residents, Notices of Meetings, Agendas and Details of Planning Applications are usually posted on the Main Boards and the Website twice a month, normally three clear days before the meeting. For further information please contact Susan De Luca – Clerk to North Weald Bassett Parish Council, either via email on clerk@northweald-pc.gov.uk or tel. 01992 523825.